

Scot's Farewell to Sydney

A team from Scotland
Came here to shoot
Against the Aussies
Who we beat last time
A hard fought match it was
But then you beat us
John Fitz's shooters
And sent us homeward
To drink again

Those shots are gone now
And in the butts
They must remain
But we can still shoot now
And hit the inner again
That fired against you
John Fitz's army
Now we'll go homeward
To drink again

(Followed by Scottish Team War cry)
Ahhhh Clench
